

Lambton County Children's Charter Of Rights
with every right for me comes a responsibility to others

In the Voices of Children...

The Right to Basic Needs Every child has the right to love and be loved, healthy food, clothes for all seasons, a safe home, clean air, water and earth.

The Right to be Heard Every child has the right to his/her emotions and to share these feelings respectfully. To be heard and to listen to others.

The Right to a Nurturing Home Every child has the right to feel safe and loved in his/her home and to spend time with family and friends.

The Right to an Education Every child has a right to learning and training - to be the best that he or she can be.

The Right to Justice and Protection Every child has the right to be safe and respected at all times and in all places, at home, school, on the internet, and in public.

The Right to Make Friends Every child has the right to have friends and the responsibility to be a friend.

The Right to Culture, Faith and Beliefs Every child has the right to be treated equally. To learn and practice his/her faith and culture without fear.

The Right to Peace Every child has a right to love, peace and happiness.

The Right to be Different Every child has the right to be himself or herself and to treat others as he or she would like to be treated.
TO BE ME!

The Right to Privacy Every child has the right to privacy when thinking, changing clothes, and learning.

The Right to Play Every child has the right to play, explore, express and dream. TO BE A KID!
TO DREAM BIG!

The Right to Equal Access Every child has the right to access healthcare, public places and opportunities to a good life.

"Today's Children...Lambton's Future"